

Prof. Dr. Dr. h. c. William Pinar, University of British Columbia, Canada

William Pinar is the Tetsuo Aoki Professor in Curriculum Studies at the University of British Columbia. He was the architect of the 1970s reconceptualist movement in curriculum theory, conceived of curriculum as currere.^{*} He founded the Journal of Curriculum Theorizing and its companion Bergamo Conference^{} in 1979 and 1982 respectively, the LSU Curriculum Theory Project in 1995, the International Association for the Advancement of Curriculum Studies^{}—he served as its first President—and (that same year: 2001) founded its U.S. affiliate: the American Association for the Advancement of Curriculum Studies.^{*} Although Pinar is known best for his publications on curriculum theory, he has also written on cultural studies, international studies, and queer studies.
