

Prof. Dr. Michael N. Forster, University of Bonn, Germany

Michael Forster is Alexander von Humboldt Professor, Chair for Theoretical Philosophy, and Co-Director of The International Centre of Philosophy NRW at the University of Bonn. Foster taught for 36 years at The University of Chicago (28 full-time, since 2013 as guest professor), and for over 8 years at Bonn University (where he joined the permanent faculty in 2013). At Chicago he chaired the Philosophy Department for 10 years and became Glen A. Lloyd Distinguished Service Professor. His research focuses thematically on epistemology and philosophy of language (in a broad sense of the term that includes hermeneutics and translation theory), historically on ancient philosophy and especially German philosophy (Kant, Herder, German Idealism, German Romanticism, Nietzsche, and Marx). He has authored and edited many books as well as numerous articles on these subjects.
